The latest correspondence of The Horticulturist presents the experiences of the most intelligent cultivators in America, the expert illustrations and the instructive and agreeable articles make it eagerly sought after by even the general reader interested in horticulture.

It contains the choicest and most interesting descriptions of SANTIN DELAINA, BROCATELLE, REFS, COTTON and COTTON and WOOL DAMASKS, BRASS CORNICES, BANDS, and CURTAIN HARDWARE, EVER offered by the Trade.

THE Description and Cultivation of Flowers and Flowering Plants and Shrubs, from the most delicate and tender to the most hardy and robust.

THE Description and Cultivation of all Edible Plants which are, or should be, grown in our gardens.

IV. The Gardening as an Art of Taste, with Designs for Ornamental Landscape Gardening.

V. The Artistic, charming Designs for Rural Cottages and Villas, Farm-Houses, Lodges, Gates, Vines, Lanes, etc.

VI. To Arborists, on the Planting and Culture of Forest and Ornamental Trees.

VII. To Botany and Entomology, so far as these branches are connected with the general subject to which the work is specially devoted.

The latest stock of WINDOW SHADES, of their own manufacture, comprising every variety, will be offered at prices to suit the taste.

The PAPER-HANGING DEPARTMENT will be found to contain, as usual, the choicer productions (both plain and decorative) of the most celebrated French and American manufacturers, suitable for parlors, dining-rooms, halls, etc.

THE ARTISTS, ENTHUSIASTS, and AMATEURS of all descriptions of building and architectural subjects will be promptly satisfied in the most superior style, as none but the best workmen are employed.
